OUR RESTAURANT BLEND – STUTTGART KITCHEN AND BAR

FOOD CULTURE MEETS MODERN COOKING AND LOCAL HEROES

BLEND is a snapshot of food trends from all over the world. Like in a melting pot, foreign cultures clash with regional flavours, traditional skills with the experimental. Never outlandish, always casually accessible and uncomplicated!

Be inspired and taste your way around the world. Our promise: All dishes are prepared using first-class products. Seasonality and locality take priority. Nothing lasts forever, there is too much to experience. Who supports us? The local heroes!

MELTING POT STUTTGART

Stuttgart is known for its industriousness and love of cars, for its thriftiness and love of organisation – but enough of the clichés. In recent years, the city has developed into a modern, open-minded metropolis that is always aware of its great traditions.

Numerous international trends can be found here, whether in the fields of cuisine, fashion or art. The city is changing and is curious for more.

SWABIAN CUISINE TODAY

Maultaschen are probably the best-known classic of Swabian cuisine. No visit to BLEND without the classic? Or maybe you do! No Stuttgart without Maultaschen. According to the original recipe, the filled dumplings are cooked in meat stock and served in it. But there are so many delicious alternatives – depending on the season, the BLEND kitchen crew really goes wild here.
